
Prayers for 1979

Posted by PumpkinJodi - 2006/10/28 16:40

Please keep Christine (1979) in your thoughts and/or prayers. She had a major medical ordeal this week (but is fine for the moment). I will let her give details if she chooses once she can log on (those of you on her MySpace already have the info). I just wanted everyone to give her some extra good wishes. Show some Pumpkin love!

I don't know what's going on, but Christine is one groovy cat. So get well soon... I give you Billy with a top hat and a monocle :monocle and my best wishes.

thanks for all your thoughts and prayers everyone, i appreciate it. what i had was a seizure, due to a lesion in my head (on top of my brain...bleh). Theyre going to be able to remove it, which is most likely to happen in January. Right now Im drugged on anti-seizure meds which is making me a bit drowsy lol. But Im sure Im gonna be fine :) Thank you everyone once again! But Im not supposed to be on the computer a whole lot until after surgery or until i finish the medication

Oh yeah, and if youre curious to know exactly what it is thats causing my seizure, its called Cavernous Angioma, google it and youll find lots of stuff :P
