
Judas O Saturnine

Posted by EasternMind - 2006/11/25 16:29

Does anyone know where I can find a copy of the Adore era version of "Saturnine"? I'm pretty sure it was released on the Judas O compilation, but it's very hard to get these days.

Why hard?
Was it a limited edition?

As far as I know it is out of print. I've never actually seen the double-disc greatest hits version. Rather, only the single disc.

Rotten Apples + Judas O are still available, but you have to buy them on amazon or ebay, they don't print them any more.

How does the master disc you speak of look like?

Is there a picture of it on this site by any chance? <http://www.geocities.com/collectspumpkins/compactdiscs.html>

It's not even close to anything on there, it's not even a promo or even a release so you wouldn't even find it on a site like that

Did you get it off eBay or something? Related to that page, I saw one of the those TAFH US promo CDs (I forget if was the 4 track or the 12 track version) in the cd library at the campus radio station I volunteered at up until 3 years ago (1999-2003 is when I went to McMaster) in Hamilton, ON of all places. Unfortunately, even if I want to ruin my reputation and swipe it, it was pointless to do so. At that campus radio station its standard procedure to use a sharpie to write the station call letters on it, and put other markings and stickers, like a catalogue number. To make matters worse, it had been in the cd library so long, they put it in one of the drawers, rather than the shelves, so all the artwork was cut up so it and the CD could fit into a plastic CD sleeve.
