
Recommended RSPAA

Posted by Felix - 2006/10/01 09:02

So, anyone know of any concerts on RSPAA that they can reeeeeeally recommend I mean the extra special best ones, please none which are on here at all.

I know there are loads of great concerts, and most of them were, but I grow tired of the (relatively) average live performances. I want some thing with lots of audience participation or, something where they cover other songs, I dunno what I mean fully, maybe you do?

Many Thanks in advance,

Richard.

It's not the first time I've heard comments like that, but now I can't say as is your head as a come back...

Don't mean to start an argument but why when I requested some good concerts would you say something like that, just seems offensive.

I can't do torrents cos i don't have a torrent programme, plus I've only got dial up, so rspaa is good for me as I can download it over a period of time.

At the Untitled Center - 11-29-00

I think its really good, they broadcasted it live for a radio show i believe.

Edit: <http://rspaa.niluje.net/data/2000/2000-11-29%20United%20Center,%20Chicago,%20IL,%20US/>

Also, my version of it dosen't have any of the "FM Talking" tracks, it came with CDs that i bought on ebay.

When i put it into my computer, it said it was named, "The Smashing Pumpkins - Farewell To My Heart Live - United Center, Chicago 11/29/2000" maybe a bootleg?

The stuff he is appologising for there, is that for what he said at the rockpalast show? How he was saying stuff like "What happend to Rudy? I saw him ply what happend, he couldn't play." And that naked guy comes on during ode to no one?

If you want something early (I recommended it in another post), then go with this:

<http://rspaa.niluje.net/data/1988/1988-10-05%20Metro,%20Chicago,%20IL,%20US/>

Great sound quality and very nice performances (somebody calls Billy a queer!)

Also here is an exceptional show:

20th September 2000, not the best performance but it sounds good(SBD - apparantly), the fuck up on To Sheila is pretty funny.
