New rule: I wanted this to be just for the uboard because I'm an elitist pig, and since words gotten out to other websites, I'm going to change the password, and have people PM me (or RBD if I'm not available) if they want it. Also other websites are free to fuck it up or hijack it as it is, I don't know why they'd do that but there are bad people out there.

here's a neat idea, I created this account called pumpkinsbank@gmail.com. What we do is we gather all our rare SP tracks (include b-sides) and mail them there. Then we can all share rare goodies and b-sides by going there and downloading them. password is: ????

use your own (not yousendit.com, their link will expire) e-mail account to send songs, and the download will be in the account for evarr. Make sure the e-mail title is the name of the song. Start emailing songs bitches! We can all share and be gay.

so if u r a n00b (or just lazy) and want rair es pee trax:

pumpkinsbank@gmail.com

edit: oh yeah log in at www.gmail.com in case you're thick

Only lossy formats (mp3, wma, et al) to ensure that we get as many tracks as possible. At the size inbox gmail has, there's lots to go anyway. Feel free to upload interesting versions of songs, covers, and early rarities.

If anyones interested i made a post in the SP forum about a compilation ive uploaded available at www.uboard.co.uk with a couple of rarities.
