<http://www.thepumpkins.net/forum/topic,1453.0/>

these were on myspace, but now they're on fileden also the myspace has changed, so i removed the link please go to the topic listed above

(just doing this cause i don't know if it's possible to close my own topic on this forum :confused)

I also like the songs :)

Behemoth could have been on TFE

Very nice, i like it alot, it would be cool to have some vocals and real drums though, and yes behemoth could have definatly been off TFE, well done mate thanks :D that TFE thing wasn't intentional, but i take it as a huge complement because i love that album!

me and my drummer are supposed to be getting together to record some stuff (4 hours away from each other nowadays :) I'm gonna do vocals for them all.

i'm gonna change a couple of those songs on the myspace pretty soon, but right now the page is set to rickroll mode hehe

ps long live teh FUTARzEMBRACE! :monocle
