Hey!

So, what's up with new stuff?? Have the recent shows had any new shirts, posters, etc?

Also, what's up with a Tarantula CD single - or better yet, vinyl single?

Zeitgeist LP??

Here's a photo of some new t shirts, album cover on front, euro tour dates on back, also a new Zero t shirt, i think the symbol on Billy's guitar strap is the O from the 'new' Zero t shirt.

This isn't my photo but it was being shared any way so here we go:

I know that store Hot Topic used to sell them-this poser from my school used to wear it and he didn't even know what it meant till I put him in his place, he didn't wear it anymore after that. ANYWAY-I checked hot topic and they said they stopped selling them for some reason, that they've been is continued-it could be because of the new Zero shirts.
