BUY YOUR PRESALE CODE

Posted by faerie87 - 2007/07/10 22:44

I GOT IT!!!!!!!!!!!!!! thank you fellow smashing pumpkins fan =)

I NEED TO GO TO EITHER THE SAN DIEGO OR LAS VEGAS SMASHING PUMPKINS CONCERT
i JUST found out today that you can get the code on itunes thru preordering their cd, if i knew earlier, i definitely would've done it T_T but i wanted the actual cd so i didn't order on itunes, but if i knew!! i would've!!

THEREFORE, I will buy your presale code (i'm hoping to pay around $12 since that's the price on itunes...but it's negotiable), so i just found out they're individualised? if anyone can't use it, i really really want to buy it off you. (providing that it works with san diego/las vegas concert? i'm not sure how it works) here's my solution to make it safe and legitimate for both of us:

if you agree to sell it, i will create an EBAY AUCTION, and give you the link, and after you bid with buy it now, i will pay YOU VIA paypal, non-credit card so you won't get charged with paypal fees. how does that sound? you will not give me the code BEFORE you get money.

please get it done before presale starts though.

i really really want to go to their concert, i can't miss it!!!

thanks

The good old St. Paul Minnesota. I'm a frost covered Pumpkins fan. If I didn't already have 3 people counting on me, I would have shared it but, alas. I hope you get your shot...

I noticed some people are selling presale codes for over $100. :down

The tickets themselves don't even go for that much.

Someone who has one and wants to sell it is telling me that the code he is not using will work for all U.S. shows. Do you guys think this is true or is he just trying to rip me off?

Re: pre-sale codes

I cant believe people are selling them....

I'm having a problem and was hoping someone could help me, but it looks like people are charging for that so I wont bother.
but my computer is screwed right now and Im using the internet at a friends house. I preordered the album and everything but since my computer is crap right now I cant get to it. anyways, I guess I'll have to keep trying. it figures that as soon as they finally come back, my piece of crap computer dies screwing me over for tickets. yay.

This is from the email I got from iTunes:

Thank you for pre-ordering the Smashing Pumpkins' new album Zeitgeist from iTunes. Your pre-order makes you eligible to purchase up to four concert tickets for their upcoming tour before they go on sale to the general public. The iTunes Pre-Sale begins at 10 a.m. (local venue time) on Thursday, July 12 and ends at 10 p.m. on Friday, July 13 in the following markets: Las Vegas, San Diego, Ridgefield, Denver, St. Paul, Normal, Detroit, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlanta, Dallas, and Nashville. Additional markets will be added at a later date. Please check back at Ticketmaster.com for updates and additional Pre-Sale dates.

To get your tickets, simply go to Ticketmaster.com and in the Password field marked "iTunes Pre-Sale" located next to your ticket order selection, enter the iTunes Pre-Sale Ticketmaster Password below.

See, the codes are not for particular shows, you can use any code for any of the cities listed above.

Was anyone able to get tickets?

Posted by Klisk - 2007/07/12 07:06

I was up at 9, hit refresh until the page reloaded and let you put in your password at 10, did it literally within the first 30 seconds of 10AM... already sold out... Wtf. :confused :confused :confused That doesn't happen even for bands bigger than the Pumpkins. Sold out within 10 seconds?

I got 2 tickets on the Mezzanine in Normal, IL. I'll hold them and go, unless they announce something special for Chicago.

Re: pre-sale codes

Posted by Klisk - 2007/07/12 08:15

I kept spamming ticketmaster until 10:40, kept getting the sold out message dozens of times...

Then at 10:41 I had a breakthrough and it offered me 2 mosh pit tickets. Bought them in a heartbeat. I'm so happy. :D

I'm going to the show in Philly, PA.

I got 2 tickets for the Mezzanine in Normal, IL too. It looks like it might be better than floor seats. I didn't even try for floor seats.

Did the show sell out in anyone's area yet? I think Normal is close to selling out already.

I better be able to get Detroit tickets one way or another. I've never seen them live before and there's still the possibility that it may be now or never. I hope SP stays together for a long time to come, but you never know what could happen.

check smashingpumpkins.com in the news section (i believe it was), they put up a post that contained an email address you can write to if this happens. i think it was something like itunespresale@comcast.net, but I'm not sure, you'll have to check.
