
Top Albums of 2007

Posted by PistolPete - 2007/12/19 20:00

Rolling Stone released it's top 50 Albums of 2007

1. M.I.A. – Kala
2. Bruce Springsteen – Magic
3. Jay-Z – American Gangster
4. Arcade Fire – Neon Bible
5. Kanye West – Graduation
6. Radiohead – In Rainbows
7. LCD Soundsystem – Sound of Silver
8. Rilo Kiley – Under the Blacklight
9. Against Me! – New Wave
10. Spoon – Ga Ga Ga Ga Ga
11. John Fogerty – Revival
12. Bright Eyes – Cassadaga
13. Lily Allen – Alright Still
14. Gogol Bordello – Super Taranta!
15. Common – Finding Forever
16. Les Savy Fav – Let's Stay Friends
17. The White Stripes – Icky Thump
18. Lucinda Williams – West
19. Devendra Banhart – Smokey Rolls Down Thunder Canyon
20. Melissa Etheridge – The Awakening
21. Nine Inch Nails – Year Zero
22. Paul McCartney – Memory Almost Full
23. 1990 – Cookies
24. Robert Plant and Alison Krauss – Raising Sand
25. Linkin Park – Minutes to Midnight
26. Miranda Lambert – Crazy Ex-Girlfriend
27. Lil Wayne – Da Drought 3
28. The Apples in Stereo – New Magnetic Wonder
29. Mary J. Blige – Growing Pains
30. Youssou N'Dour – Rokku Mi Rokka
31. Kings of Leon – Because of the Times
32. Maroon 5 – It Won't Be Soon Before Long
33. Willie Nelson, Merle Haggard, Ray Price – Last of the Breed
34. Chris Brown – Exclusive
35. Feist – The Reminder
36. Alicia Keys – As I Am
37. Down – Over the Under
38. Imperial Teen – The Hair the T.V. the Baby & the Band
39. Dr. Dog – We All Belong
40. Amy Winehouse – Back to Black
41. Of Montreal – Hissing Fauna, Are You the Destroyer?
42. Wilco – Sky Blue Sky
43. Smashing Pumpkins – Zeitgeist
44. Peter Bjorn & John – Writer's Block
45. Foo Fighters – Echoes, Silence, Patience & Grace
46. Fall Out Boy – Infinity on High
47. Band of Horses – Cease to Begin
48. Mavis Staples – We'll Never Turn Back
49. Dropkick Murphys – The Meanest of Times
50. Britney Spears – Blackout

What RS said about Zeitgeist:

Billy Corgan and drummer Jimmy Chamberlin, the only original members in this resurrection, make an art-pop roar worthy of the Pumpkins crown. Corgan piles on guitar overdubs with philharmonic zeal and Siamese Dream-era smarts on searing songs about the suffocating chaos of life and politics in America.

How does this compare with your top (5) albums of 2007?

Mine would be:

1. Nine Inch Nails - Year Zero

2. John Mayer - Continuum
3. Smashing Pumpkins - Zeitgeist
4. Foo Fighters - Echo, Silence, Patience & Grace
5. Led Zeppelin - Mothership

Looks like Shiny Toy Guns are working on some new material. Maybe they'll make the list in 2008 with this little number.

lol, i agree. zeitgeist should definitely be switched with no world for tomorrow.

something happened to my post???

i just said i dont understand how they can compare all the different genres. and i dont like the idea of this list at all. lol does seem strange how they compare so many different genres together. Back when alt rock and grunge dominated, zeitgeist prob would have done better. today's music sucks, period.

Sad state of music when that is the Top 50. Bleh.
But, yeah for Zeitgeist!

Actually - Shiny Toy Guns are nominated for a Grammy this year, which is a little better than being on this list if you ask me.

AWESOME! Rolling Stone put Imperial Teen up there! happy dance

My top ten:

- 1) M.I.A./Kala
- 2) Explosions in the Sky/All of a Sudden I Miss Everyone
- 3) Straylight Run/The Needles The Space
- 4) Bright Eyes/Cassadaga
- 5) Arcade Fire/Neon Bible
- 6) Gogol Bordello/Super Taranta!
- 7) Bloc Party/A Weekend in the City
- 8) Bishop Allen/The Broken String
- 9) Interpol/Our Love to Admire
- 10) Tiger Army/Music From Regions Beyond

Zeitgeist probably made the top 15 in my book.

i really loved Rainbows

Re:Top Albums of 2007

Posted by dougydarkangel - 2008/01/05 15:55

Im yet to meet someone who doesnt like in rainbows, i actually found it really dull and uninteresting.

Re:Top Albums of 2007

Posted by chargel - 2008/01/05 16:00

we in brasil live a very diferent scenery, but so near to that we are dominated BY EMOCORE band, and Axé Music (wich is a mix of eletronic music with afro music, with obscene lyrics...) and some Bad sexist Funk, thank to a nacional famouse movie...) I guess is a little worst, even the "Rock representant" are a bad kind, a buch of school kids whose wear too much make up and play too less...

still i do agree Zeighest is not good enough to this list, but i guess 80% of this CD are too.

I'm erring more on the side of agreeing with you. It's an alright, pretty enough album. But Thom Yorke gets away with musical murder with each album, seriously. No one else in rock is held to such low standards and such high (sometimes unworthy) praise. And it pisses me off. I like In Rainbows, but it's really no different from Hail to the Thief.

I want OK Computer back, man.

i was with you trillian

after giving it a good number of listens though, I do like a couple songs... weird fishes and jigsaw are pretty good. They're no OK computer, but then again Maladroit is no Pinkerton.
