Thanks People :)

We are going for the first Scan next week, but apparently Its too early to be 100% sure of the sex at this stage. The Second scan latter on is more accurate.

We only started discussing names a couple of days ago and we havent got a clue where to start. We agree we dont want anything thats too common and we cerertainly dont want to copy any celebrity names. was thinking "zane" though for a boy ;)

Ill have to get one of those lulaby albums

Congratulations on that!

It's always good to see that the miracle of love is still somewhere around there...

Sorry, that sounds a bit pathetic:p

Btw: Pistol Pete stole my pic, so I'm going to have another one:upset ;) :D

Awesome, great news, you and your family must be so happy.

and DON, I wouldn't worry, seeing as PistolPete changes his DP more often than his underwear...

You're welcome, I just needed a reason to change my image and someone who is to blame for that;) The MCIS became slightly boring...

Thanks again everyone for all your kind words. We had the dating and NT scan last thursday everything looks OK so far though we couldnt find out if its going to be a boy or girl yet. The scan was pretty clear and you could make out all details such as arms, ears and eyes. I was so fascinated!!

Ill try to keep you all updated, but you know what im doing if I suddenly dont post as much after November.....LOL
