
XYU Acoustic

A few new shows have arisen on the ARCHIVE.ORG, two of them being better recordings of a 1997 show.

On this date there is an amazing version of XYU, and the entire show is acoustic! Amazing!

I'm glad these new sources have surfaced. They are far better than the previously circulated ones. Although I don't think XYU works acoustic, the rest of the show is great.

BTW, thanks for reminding me about these shows. I need to upgrade my source. Here's both shows from the Bridge School Benefit:

1997-10-18 with Marilyn Manson and Twiggy

1997-10-19 don't forget John Popper's sweet harmonica solo on Porcelina...that's the real gem here.
