walken looks incredibly old in that picture its scary :o

his latest snl monologue was the the funniest thing on snl i've seen in a really long time... i dont think its anywhere online though, else i would link it.

(he hands out questions for people to ask, cause people always ask dumb questions or something, and there was one about his fav color and hes like "oh! what a bad question!" or something like that, its hilarious i swear :yay )

oh yeah, i never got why the cowbell thing was funny except for his small shirt. :/
