i think this video might have been uploaded by billy corgan himself..figuring from the chicago in his screenname, age 40, the account was created last week, rarity and randomness of the video, and that hes from france (the pumpkins are recording in france as of feb.ÿ 08).

Coincidence??

I think not!!

I know you're just kidding, but this person posted these videos last week, but they've been on YouTube for a couple months already.
