yeah. more confusion.
I seriously think that the writers have no clue what they're doing.

Oh they do. They've set an end to the show, so I think they atleast have a plan in the long run.

yeah, but I'm sure there are still gonna be all these little unsolved mysteries by the end of the show.

It was good, not great (like last season finale, my goodness!) And I'm quite saddened that they actually killed Jin. Probably chock it up to Daniel Dae Kim getting arrested for drunken driving. Bummertown.

Although, Penny and Des reuniting almost made up for it.
