
SP Tattoos?

Posted by ghostchild - 2008/06/06 05:35

Anybody got one? Let's see what they look like. I'm getting ready to get my first. I want to incorporate a short and sweet but profound lyric from any SP songs. I have some ideas but wondered what suggestions you all might have. What lyrics do you already have tattooed, and if you don't have any, which ones would you get?

Do you know about Rat-Tat-Tattoos? They've got tons of pics of SP tattoos.

well, i am planning on getting one on the back of my neck, and i want it to have a black heart, and the initials bwbw and it's a black heart they'll get, but in really swirly cursive, i will have to have the writing small though, to fit, cause i don't think that tats on the side of your neck look that great, now there are some people who can pull it off, but not most. then i am gonna get one on my leg probably, i will have to find a space on my left leg, right one is already in a whole "theme", that will be the sp heart, with maybe a little pumpkin or something, but bloodlined, not black outline. i already have 6 tats, 2 of which are pretty big. i want to get a whole mural on my lower back of bands that i love with all my heart, so i am working on that idea, and the money to get it. :)

i have seen lots of the sp hearts, and some of the artwork from inside mcis. but i think if you got something custom that you conceptualized that would be even better.

sorry i get a little excited when people talk tattoo's, occupational hazard, i am tattoo crazy. but most people think that if you are you should be covered, but i look at it like, it is forever, and you better be able to live with what you get forever, so choose wisely. and make sure where ever you go that everything is clean and steril, make sure they let you look at what they will be using on you, and if you think that they are at all maybe not clean do not go there. and ask around people you see with good tattoo's. also, if someone's tattoo looks like it is raised above the skin, or shiny that means it is scared, and that the tattoo artist did not do it right. so ask those people where they got theirs, and DON'T go to that place.

i would say that i could do it, but wrist problems have prevented me from doing any tattoo's for about 7 months now. and i am hating it.

ok i will stop now.

:o Uuuuh, I wouldn't dare to.

Not even one of the Pumpkins (which would probably have been my 1st choice).

I'm afraid of having this permanent in my skin and I'm also afraid of changes (maybe oneday, I won't like Pumpkins any longer for some reason, and then???).

But it'll surely look cool:)

I've already got some tattoos (not SP though), but I've always wanted some SP ink. It's a catch 22 though. On one hand, getting tattoos of a band is kind of looked down upon. But when getting a tattoo you're suppose to get something meaningful and close to you right? So what better than an SP tat??

I've thought about getting the word "Siva" written in a Hindu language. Something like this ॐ, on the inside of my right bicep. Also, the symbols in the MCIS booklet have always appealed to me as a good tat.

lyrics would be cool, but so would symbals from different points in the bands career. MCIS symbols and Machina symbols would be my choice. If looking at lyrics, I would prob choose "The Impossible is Possible Tonight."

A buddy of mine, who is also a Pumpkinhead, works at a place the Pumpkins played last November. So he was able to walk around and talk with Billy and Jimmy all day. He got them to sign his arm and he had it tattooed the next day. When he asked Billy to do it Billy said, "Are ya sure you really wanna go through with it?" :billy

Dude, you and me both. I toyed with the idea for a while, perhaps the SP heart. But then I realized, oh wait, I'm TERRIFIED of needles. And yeah, the permanence is too much for me. I don't want to be 80 and inked (no offense to those who will be! It's just not for me.)

I almost find people more attractive now when they DON'T have tats.

yeah, thats the only thing that would suck about having a tatoos. having it when your old and shriveld.

girls would always come in and want cute little tattoo's on thier 20 something stomach, and i would ask them, plan on having kids? and they are all like yeah, and then i would say, you want your tattoo to look like someone stretched it out and then left it to long? and they were like, wow, maybe i will get it somewhere else.

i don't even want to think about what my tattoo's will look like when i am 60 or 70, scary. good thing i took out my peircings.

yeah, i wouldn't want a tatoos. it might look weird when your old and its a kind of permanent thing. i jusdon't like the idea.

Life's too short to worry about what you're going to look like when you're 80. I've thought about this for a long time and never have pulled the trigger, but I'm ready to do it now. I have a pretty kick-ass idea I'll share with you all when it's done and I can show it off. Hopefully will be getting it done here within the next few weeks.:D
