i of the radio sucks as much as zwan does flame

Posted by cashcarstar1919 - 2006/05/24 17:54

ok a flame war...honestly you like zwan,how come they didnt sell any records maybe because the world and millions who know zwan would not buy that album maybe all those people are right or maybe you are always right? honestly sucked and billy and jimmy are friends of mine but still zwan was all about a promise he made to a friend to make that group with him.billy thinks zwan sucks to he believes in the pumpkins as i do according to sound scan billy and the other members of t.s.p. sold 25 million records total...zwan maybe by now 400,000 which is great but the only reason it had lil success or any at all because of billy and of course jimmyrock on i of the radio. he canceled personally zwan because he did NOT like the members of the band which make zwan zwan with billy and jimmy but jimmy is one if not his best friend..i agree billy those zwan people suck even on his website he blasted zwan actually the others including paz of zwan blast him personally so how can you like zwan when they put billy down and billy is a pumpkin...some things never change :billy :jimmy :zwansucks i agree

Re:Currently Thinking...

Posted by HeavenlyAlchemy - 2008/06/14 15:09

laugh Yes!! There were a few red splatters on my ceiling and I was thinking...what the crap did I DO last night Open a can of preserved strawberries or somethin'??!! ;P ??!! THEN I remembered that a couple of nights ago a bowl of salsa fell to the floor and splattered all over the place. I thought I was able to get everything cleaned up. I didn't even think about the celing...it's like 9 or 10 feet high so that salsa hit with some force... I tell ya it was like a monotone Jackson Pollock painting in here!

Now I'm thinking....Why is it that I do a load of laundry at some random time (usually late at night) and forget about it till I have another load of laundry that I want to do (usually a day or so later) then I open up the washer and there is a load of moldy smelling clothes (usually with some faves mixed in) that I have to wash 3 times to get them back to normal. Am I the only one that does this? laugh

They rocked over 2 hours including everything I saw on the old Vids of my father (like the batflight/fireworks out of the guitar and Gene Simmons' dragonboats:D)

The music was cool hardrock (OK, who's visiting KISS for the music;)) and the atmosphere nearby burning.

Ok..Salsa is completely misunderstood..like most everything else ;P I can relate. Salsa related, there are 457 styles of salsa..from spicy to light to fruity to purple to green. If you wanted you could find a salsa to fit your style. Have you tried pineapple or mango? Bar-b-que is nice...ranch..the old school way yum...also good with salsa..cuts the tang. If you wanted to try it. laugh Look at me trying t show you why salsa is good hehe! So show me the beauty of bar-b-que or ranch (which I don't need to be swayed to!)

Pistol Pete I'm sure you recieved a TON of PMs...

I'm a little green about Kiss...glad to hear the show rocked.

HAHAHAHAH Ghostchild, most people are wusses at 70...I bet I'll be a wuss at 70. I hope not but still...you are 70 dude!!>???? What do you do? Route around your garden, look at eh lake, grab a metal detector and goofy hat and search to find things lost..and hopefully found again?! Hey have I mentioned all teh viagra needing cactus here in the Scottsdale/Phoenix area? Astounding!????!!

Re:Currently Thinking...

Posted by bulletwoutbutterflywings - 2008/06/21 08:16 that mango salsa is not sounding good to me.

and also a home of the future that cleans itself, i am in for one of those.

ok..bbq, oh my goodness, the sweet, but a touch of tangy. i could eat it all by itself. brown sugar with hickory, oh that is the best. but i just bought a new flavor, it is bullseye with guinness, dude, you must run to the store and get some. it is sooooooooooooo good. i like guinness, and bbq, i would have never thought to put them together, silly me. the taste explosion! i put it in meatloaf, it was like a whole new meal. and who doesn't love ranch? i like it with everything. even pizza.

i might try some salsa, but i will have to find some that is not to spicy. i will look around.

i don't think kiss is that old, but almost.

I'm not a big mango fan myself, so don't blame you laugh.

Yep yep I'm on the list...as long as it has quality of the past...but all the bells and whistles of the future grin.

Mmmmmmm...Guinness Bar-B-Q sounds heavenly! Too true, bbq sauce and Ranch dressing go on just about anything. Not sure I'm going to be putting it on sweet things though. That may just be a flavor combo that though a flavor explosion...may end up exploding all over the wall by sheer will of the taste buds revolting!

Awww...you know you don't have to try it. I was trying to show you that there is more to salsa than hot spicy burn your tongue out of your mouth stuff. You know if you do try salsa maybe make it fresh and add cilantro. Ummm ya OK I'm a salsa geek...

HAHAHAHAHAHAH!! Ya, I was really just tongue in cheek about the Kiss stuff. I was being truthful though about being a little green at not being able to see the show. Kiss is a great live show.

i HATE spider pig

these idiot kids at the movie theatre, like 12 years old, were singing the song right in front of me, and i am the least tolerant person, so i turned around and said shut up, and they ruined the movie for me, and i still dont like it. the newer seasons of the show kinda suck badly

Re:Currently Thinking...

Posted by epitome - 2008/07/07 18:46

Well, the Spider Pig moment in the movie was ruined by being in the trailer to be honest. I still liked that bit though and the movie had a few other good moments. I prefer it to what I've seen of the later seasons of the show.

the new simpsons episodes are great, they have very interesting screenplays, maybe it was just cause i was high but the ballet dancing one was amazing. there was a nice little mother daughter talk about boobs, margs came in one at a time and lisa was shocked and was like "do you think mine will..." "oh no, im pretty sure youve got your fathers boobs" "oh..."

and when lisa was talking about a recent episode of the suite life of zach and cody, made me lol cause my little brother watches that.

how does she get that emote in her posts?

i got fired. i feel bad. even though i wantedd to be and could probably get another job. i went in drunk. the baddest thing to do. lol

Re:Currently Thinking...

Posted by Geek N.Z. - 2008/07/08 13:44

I think the best part was when everyone thought that they were all gonna die, and Martin walks up to the three bullies Dolph, Kearny and Jimbo, and says, "I've been taking crap from you my whole life!" and then proceeds to beat them with a wooden plank.

I was happy that Green Day died so soon, as well, I thought they would die at the climax of the film or something.

I bet all the people that never heard of Green Day thought that they were huge environmentalists, not just because of their script, but the actual name of the band :D

well, now you can't write that book of memoirs, my life at the 7/11 maybe you can get another job with strange people, cause it was very interesting.

oh and going to work drunk is not a good idea, i have gone to work after drinking all night, and still being drunk when i got up. not fun. unless your totally bombed.

just right click over the image, go to properties, copy the url and paste it in this format.

img size=60]...url... (i had to remove a bracket to get it to show up) i changed the image size from 640 to 60. you can change image size by changing that number.

img size=640]

and thats how you get this little guy <http://www.clipartof.com/images/thumbnail/1231.gif>.

Very different sounding, but pretty much exactly the same lyrical subject.

OK, side note...Randy Rhodes really rocked on the Ozzy side. Thanks for bringing up music that had been put to the side for newer things in my catalog!

Yes, I like that song too, one of those guilty pleasures I suppose, just like Justin Timberlake!

Re:Currently Thinking...

im surprised someone else actually likes that song too, i guess you just have to get passed being cool or "i hate mainstream"

Re:Currently Thinking...

what do you mean by "get passed"?

Re:Currently Thinking...

Posted by HeavenlyAlchemy - 2008/07/12 04:36

I think it's kind of the feeling that some have that to be "cutting edge" mainstream is a nono. Or to deny something you love because it is mainstream, and you have an image to live up to...or an image you want to portray yourself as to the world. So he's gotten past the posing and comfortable with who he is. But just because someone dosen't love something dosen't make that person try to be anything. It just dosen't fit that person. So why pose at liking something to fit in either?

Just speculation though.

Frankly I lay all of who I am bare and if you like me good, if you don't so sad...if you are indiffrent that's cool too. But I would rather be hated for who I am than loved for who I am not.

laugh Where did THAT come from!!

dont get me wrong, i dont give credit to the actual singers, i know they have lyricists and producers and countless musicians that actually make the music. but the people who do that are professionals. i just dont like when they cookie cut. like i think ive said it before in another thread, but these days the pop music started being written with a lull somewhere towards the end, a thing that rock music started, usually before guitar solos or the outro. but yeah, pop music writers stealing that kinda pisses me off sampling is artistic, its like putting a twist on something you like, like painting something in different colors or askew... people wouldnt bash andy warhol for painting marilyn monroe, saying he couldnt make the shapes himself...

daft punk made some sweet sample songs :)

daft punk made some sweet sample songs :)

The truth.

I never said that I like the ARTIST, I like the song for sure.

A huge guilty pleasure of mine is "Candy" by Mandy Moore, but you wouldn't see me raving about her talent and whatnot. But as far as hyper-produced music goes, it's one of my favourites.

I like summer, because during summertime my extended family and family friends and I go camping in a countrysidish/rural area, and theres a beach... Very naice :]

If it's unbearably hot, a dip will do the trick.

It's not summertime now though, I'm in the southern hemisphere.

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leafs a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.

sorry trillian, i am just tired of hearing about radiohead, i don't like them. but you can. just what i was currently thinking when i saw that.

oh but what i was gonna say was there is gonna be a festival in my town this weekend. and i am so not looking forward to the music, which will be played right across the street from my house. friday night it is gosple, which would be ok, if all the singers didn't sound like dieing dogs. saturday a alright band willbe playing, and i don't know who will play on sunday, but i can geuss it won't be anyone good. and even if i turn up the music at my house, something good, like sp, i wouldn't be able to hear it, plus i can't keep my mp3 player in my ears all weekend, then i won't be able to hear my family complaining about stuff.....hey wait, i could be onto something.

Not necessarily a music festival, but I have some neighbors that I wish would die a horrible death. It's not gospel music, it's loud booty music all night long. Exactly what I want to hear at three am, Puff Daddy and other crap with some dude screaming, "Girrrl your azz is lookin fiiine tonight! Pass me that bottle yo! Aw man, that's some fucked up shit yo!"

"Hello? SFPD? I'd like to report a disturbance..."

i don't like people who can't play music at a decent level. does the whole city need to hear that stuff, no put the volume at a decent level and leave it. geeze.

the only good thing about this weekend is gonna be the funnel cake. oh and there are some neat vendors who set up, sometimes they have cool stuff. like i got a nice leather bracelet last year.

It's all good. I LIKE Radiohead, but I will never understand why so many people hold them in the same regards as say, The Beatles. I honestly prefer the "rock" Radiohead. "Pablo Honey" is my favorite album from them. I liked it when you could actually understand Thom Yorke's lyrics.

That said, the show was cool, but so not worth the twice-the-face-value tickets (the gigantic Hollywood Bowl sold out TWO nights.) Plus, I was so intoxicated, I couldn't remember 3/4 of the show. Stupid me!

whoa!! I applaud you doomsday.

I never really drank it much until I met my bad habit(husband) now I am back to kicking out of my life. It is gross.

anyone ever put a dirty penny in a cup with coke to see how shitty that stuff really is for you ?try it :)

or have fun and put peppermint mentos in your mouth and add coke and enjoy-advice: lay down to do it

I never did it, but it's kinda funny to watch

Re:Currently Thinking...

i know it's gross, but it is true, when my tummy feels all yucky if i eat cold mcd's fries it feels better, i think it is all in my head, but as long as it works.

and no idont eat them off the sidewalk, i have someone else get them for me and then i wait till they are cold to eat them.

if i am not sick, they give me a wierd taste in my mouth.

So what's on our TV all the time?

Platinum Weddings

Martha Stewart Weddings

Bridezillas

And everything else related.

Then she's on bridal websites calling me over saying, "Would you wear this? You're not the maid of honor, my friend is, but would you wear this as a bridesmaid? What do you mean you're not going to wear a strapless dress? You have to!"

OI, shut up!

that was enough for me to say this music sucks ass....I told my son, that is some of the dumbest shit I have heard in a song.

Who wants to be grossed out by that shit...lame ass music going on. I also looked at the radio's play list sucks ass....well it is a hip hop station, but the songs are just shitty.I'd rather listen to the old school hour, but old school is considered last year and beyond so they aren't really playing the 'old skool' stuff...

Doesn't that sound just get old and boring to people...Snoop Dog always sounds the same, I think Usher is hot as hell, but his music this time is not as good as the confessions cd. It almost seems that there is not enough talent musically out there anymore, just steal the beats and melody from a previous song and make up some lame ass lyrics..don't get me wrong there are some good artists, but lil Wayne sucks ass and always has. Kids these days think he is the greatest rapper-WHAT!! They need real music in their ears :)
Yeah I would get tired of listening to the crankin shitty music to rattle your ass to, so most of those people can smoke dope and get laid while driving in their car to a football game..lol

Yeah, I agree, Lil Wayne does suck ass and I haven't liked Snoop Dogg since high school. It is sad to me that people are so wrapped up in the booty and bling-bling. I just can't (and don't want to) understand it. There comes a time in your life when you should grow the f-up and think about what is really important in life. I am glad I am smart enough to understand what good music is and I am not stuck in only what is popular.

Hella is a word commonly used around here, it's a slang word for "very" i.e. telling your friend that he/she "is hella stupid."

who came up with those rank names?

do you have to reach 2000 posts to reach "Die"?

Smashing Pumpkins did, durr.

It's the names of the Pastichio Medley riffs, it changes every 25 posts.

A while ago, I was worried that I would have to get my wisdom teeth pulled when I had pains in the joint between my jawbone and my skull.

It was really hard to eat, sometimes I couldn't open my mouth, sometimes I couldn't shut it. Thankfully it was only temporary.

No, but V-8 is. That's the second-to-last riff on PM. Die is coming...

"Pasta of Muppets" is a spoonerism of "Master of Puppets". In other words swap the M and the P around.

Re:Currently Thinking...

Posted by DON - 2008/10/29 11:32

OK, the book is written in German:(, but I'll try to explain the story to you in my poor English:

It's a very dark and emotional story with less (or no) action but many inner monologues, lyrics of the main character (Liz) and a high emotional and sexual tension...when I read the first 10 pages to a female friend of mine, she used to talk about a dark-erotic character of the story, but nevermind...:p

The whole thing is about the teenage years (13-18) of a girl, called Liz. I've chosen a female main character, because writing about male sexuality would make me feel...dunno..wrong?!

She's the most inconspicuously person you can imagine, tough she lives gothicstyle and all that stuff.

The story is splitted into two phases, phase 1 is called virgin, phase 2 bitch.

In the beginning of phase 1, the 13 year-old Liz discovers love for the first time. She's having the dream of a beautiful, male water corpse; she's immidiatly falling in love with him, knowing, that he's dead and just a figure of her fantasy.

When she wakes up, she sees that she used to have her very first menstruation while sleeping...So death, the love for him and her periods are slightly becoming a circle of pain.

She draws a picture of him which is hanging above her bed.

For 2 years (till she is 15 years old) she needs to hurt herself, everytime her menstruation (and with that the picture of him, who is unreachable) returns.

After those 2 years, 29 scars cover her body; she calls them roses, because of the "blooming blood" which used to come out of the wounds.
Liz changed her style (and even her room) totaly to gothic...and she starts to hate her life...
Before hurting herself for the 30th time, Liz discovers, that a guy in her school looks and acts exactly like "him" and from this moment on, she accepts life as real...but she won't love it, because she is to shy to date "him".
Nearby desperated, she runs into a stranger (and here's the connection to what I had to experience:sigh) who appears to be a friendly and intersting person.
After some days, they've sex...after some weeks he kicks Liz.
I try to make the sexscence as cruel and painful as possible...while doing it she knows, that it is wrong what she's just doing.
After being left by him, Liz feels the need to end her life, because she feels ashamed, abused and let down by everyone.
And now phase 2 begins (with a little revenge in it, a disadvantageously quote from my ex opening it...)
Phase 2 starts with Liz trying to hurt herself the 30th time.
While doing that, she suddenly stops and changes her mind..
Well, I need to make up reasons and explanations for that but she'll slightly become a femme fatale becias of her desperation who abuses and betrays all the guys around as a revenge to the things, the stranger has done to her.
I also have to make up a special "goody" Liz doing to him;) .
In the end, Liz seduces the guy of her school who she still loves, just because she's able to do it and she sees the only way to "get him" in that.
But after having slept together, he quits, laughing at her and claiming that she's just a poor bitch.

Well, that's the rough cut of the story which I'm temporarily writing on...

Haha, what's ironic to me is that I find a lot of similarity between Death Magnetic and Zeitgeist. Both were touted as "comeback" albums, but both's production seemed so anachronistic and pandering to old-school fans.
