Just like the lyric lost my innocence to a no good girl, It reminds me of my first time. This subject is very personal and I really don't know how to start it off.:(<http://www.thepumpkins.net/images/fbfiles/images/4026246606a6942162325l-2387a36ecd9d2a5ddb32fb9ba6987e71.jpg>

I lost my virginity to a no good girl, too. It was over 8 years ago, she was older, I was handcuffed to the bedside table of my best friend's girlfriend as her best friend rode me. I was laying on a Cookie Monster blanket, and could only focus on the dull tap of my necklace hitting the hardwood floor. I got so lost in it that I unknowingly came, and my condom pulled off as she got off, and I had to fish it out. TRUE STORY, 100%.

Haaha, I lost my innocence to a no good girl...

I basically only was going out with her because she was STUNNING, but I didn't really think that way at the time, just told myself I loved her etc...

We were only going out for one day, and me, her, her friend, and a mate of mine got together at her friend's house to watch a couple of movies.

So we were in the seperated rumpus room for a while, me and my gf were on a couch with a blanket, while my friend and her friend were on the other couch, watching the movie, but me and my lady were too interested in feeling each other. She had a condom, so we went into the TINY bathroom (probably wasn't even 1.5 meters by 3 meters) in the next room, our friends didn't realize we were going to fuck, they thought we were just going to make out.

But noooo... We went all the way.

It was actually pretty awful, it was uncomfortable as hell, and I couldn't see, so as it was my first time it made it kinda difficult.

Kinda wish I didn;t do it.

woot, virginity thread!!!

all the girls on this forum seem have left the building, hahaha

i lost my virginity to a casual acquaintance, of sorts. she came over, and when she was about to leave, she grabbed my crescent wrench and i was like (wtf) and just looked at her, so i drove her home and we did it in her room on her bed, blah blah. i was 16. and it was warm.

she was a no good girl

my first time was at five in the morning. it was pretty average; in a bed, lasted long, romantic. Though it was really awkward at first because i had absolutely no idea how to start things off though it was clear she wanted me to do something. That night was also my first kiss as well so yeah. I wouldn't say she's a no good girl though. we've both got some personal issues though we're still together.

That's seriously pimp, dude, and you need to keep your virginity for as long as humanly possible. I'd do almost anything to be a virgin again, despite the fact that I don't regret my sexual life (mostly because there isn't a little Six running around, nor have I ever caught anything). Women get all buttery in their nether reigons for virgin dudes, and your life is exponentially less complicated.

I commend you, DougyD.

For me, my parents just figure it out, I don't try to hide it really, I just bring it up whenever I need to, like "Hey mum, can I go to my gf's house this weekend?" and then she'd bring up "Oh, what happened to you and ol' whatsername?"

I dunno, it just seems kinda weird to say "Just so you know, I've got a gf now" as soon as I get one.

I don't even think he ever knows when I have or don't have girlfriends.

but to anyone who doesn't wait, ALWAYS wear a condom, or make your "partner" wear one, saves alot of headaches, or wear two.

Apparently wearing two condoms rubs them together making it a higher risk for it to rip.

well i am wating till i am 36 to have sex. cause when you are 36 everyone is doing it.

well, you just shouldn't look at those girls, or when you do look at them, wonder what kind of desise they might have, cause probably 2 to 3 out of every 10 perobably have some desise, that might help you on waiting.

Yes WAIT..that is the smartest thing you could do. since us grown folks have been there done that you might want to take that with ya and just wait for someone who is a little more special. Girls are kinda bad now a days...well the ones that I know...they be lying left & right. Maybe it's because the are from the burbs'. nah even the city chics are like that-just more blunt!

Just wait or you could end up with a baby like I did :)

i grew up in a good town, but almost everyone i knew, at least in high school, was doing it. i think i was one of the last of my friends to do it. and i do regret it, i should have waited. and i think that the desicions i started making then have totally effected my life up till now. you don't think when you are 14-18 that your life will hinge upon desicons that you make then, but geuss what they do.

I was talking about my girlfriend about taking chances or passing them by in general, and I kind of noticed that a lot of times in life, there are opportunities which could be bad or good either way, sometimes you will take them and they turn out shit, but other times, you pass them by and you think "would that have turned out good or bad?"

But you would never know...

Re:Lost My Innocence To A No Good Girl

Posted by bulletwoutbutterflywings - 2008/07/10 20:27

yes, but desicions that big, need to be weighed out. i didn't think about it when i did. i wish now that i had. just thinking about it in the first place, is this good or bad, you are one step ahead of the game, and then when you make a desicion based on the facts, not your raging teenage hormones, you are more likely to end up with a good outcome.

i made one to many bad mistakes with those damn hormones, let your brain do the thinking, not the nether regions.

ok, that is it.

Yeah, well, considering the title of the thread anyway, its understandable why it turned out that way haha.

Iv never technicaly had sex but i would say my innocence has been well and truely lost, between getting certain areas stroked under the table by my sisters best freind at her birthday party to a simmlar situation in the back of the car with my ex with our best freind sleeping right next to us haha.

I think when things start to get physical like that, it tends to break down emotional bonds between the people, or maybe iv destroyed my mind with pornography to the point where i cant respect people in a physical context, who knows there are a lot of teenagers that talk about sex like its nothing. im not that hardcore. i think its mostly in small towns or the in crowd. or maybe just unattractive chicks trying to be appealing. lol.

how did deciding to have sex change your life? did you become a "slut" or something? (bwobw)

no, i had a steady boyfriend for about 2 years in high school, that was my first. that ended badly, and then i was with a string of really bad losers, i think that long relationship ending badly was what did it. i didn't handle things in a good way, and was looking for anyone, i didn't really sleep around, i haven't been with that many people, but the choices i made were guys as far away from my first boyfriend/serious relationship as i could. the guy i was with first was a great, sweet giving guy, and i fucked it up. so the guys i chose to be with after that were fuckups, so that made me the good guy and them the bad guy. they were older than me by at least 5 years, and bad drunks or drug addicts. (yeah i know) but my consiosly chooseing to be with them, and not the nice guys i led myself down a road that i wish i hadn't. there were other guys i could have been with, and maybe i was just punishing myself for being a bitch. i don't know. but the guys i chose were the cool older guys, the mysterious ones, and the bad boys. which is fine for a fling, but not to let them move in with you, and then have to suport them, and get treated like shit. but i am way past that now. and i am glad. if i could go back and change it i would. but i think doing it with my first boyfriend made me less i don't know the best word to explaine it, but i geuss i didn't think about doing it as impornant, or sacred. i don't know if that is the right word, but something like that

that sounds like one of those cop outs... but i guess you can chalk it up to not waiting, but then would also have to add all that other stuff you chose to do?

Re:Lost My Innocence To A No Good Girl

no that is not everything, and re reading it i didn't expline it well enough. it is hard for me to explaine it. here i will try again.

i felt presured by my friends and boyfriend to do it. everyone else was doing it. i felt the odd man out. so i finally did it. and then after that relationship was over i did not see why i shouldn't do it with other people. cause i had already done it. i underestimated how i would feel about these jerks i did it with. cause to girls (well most i would say) doing it equals love,at least on some level, and when people use you just for sex, and then treat you like shit, you begin to feel like that also. if i hadn't done it with my first boyfriend, i would not have given it up so easy to later "boyfriends" who after doing it with, i thought loved me in some small way. so i geuss i am saying pulling the trigger at 16, i already felt i had a good handle on the situation, which i didn't. and sex is what led me down the path, and if i had never done it, i wouldn't have done it with who i did. which those people were bad mistakes. i geuss you could say i was slutty, but not with that many people, not like i was doing it with a diffrent guy every night. but i did make bad choices, and in my miind it all goes back to that one desicion. if i hadn't then i wouldn't have done alot of things.

would i have to add all that other stuff, like what?

to me one desicion is like the begning of a path. that path can go many directions, but which ones depend on which desicions you make. can one diffrent disicion change your whole life? i think it can, but that is just my opinion.

don't know if i got it across they way i wanted, it is difficult to get things across sometimes for me.

OMG Bullet..similar..lol

I was with a guy and chose to lose my virginity because peer pressure and hoping that if I give it up he won't stray as we say...

And guess what-he stryaed. Now looking back ew-what was I thinking. Then I just started to date who ever 2 guys at the same time-terrible...I was young and dumb. Then I met a guy we knew his dad he move up to stay with his dad and he ended up in a fight with his dad and wound up at my house. Well I didn't really like him after livin' with him, so I was a whore and went to my friend with priviledges house...lol..came back and on Valentine's day told him we were over and you know what the fucker does? tries to hang himself in my house WTF? We weren't anything special...It was literally only 3 months I think...I also had another guy try to do that when i said I was dumping them(teen years)... Nice guilt trips, didn't work..I sent the hanger to the psych ward and he called non-stop & I wouldn't talk to him.

I have had my fill of doorknobs that's for sure.. My first real relationship, when I was 18 put my trust level out the door. And I have the best husband in the world in my book and I still have trust issues sometimes...

you keep searching til' the right one comes and you know when the right one comes-well at least I did..I saw my hubby walk though the bowling alley door & out of my mouth I said that's the guy I am going to marry upon 1st sight. and here I am married going on 9 years.

That was 2 months after the hanger guy..I was in an anti man place...It was all about my kid and me & that's all that mattered at that time.

Just one question:

In the last few threads I've been reading: "after i was in love with him/her I had that girl/that boy and then i slept with her/him and all ended up with being with him/her....."

Where did you get all your partners from?

Seems to me, like love awaits you on every corner at some places, while I'm sitting here and wondering, if I'll ever find a girl that belongs to me.

That's strange...

I kind of started getting close with my current girlfriend after I went to her house on my birthday this year, back then we were friends, but we got closer and closer after that, when we started seeing each other more and more. Those times were really exciting for us because we were both in love with each other but we didn't want to tell each other, so we were constantly trying to see how much we could hint to each other before we got the message.

She likes to read these forums too, but she's only posted once. She reads my posts, too.

Hi there ;)

Relationships are all about making concessions :)
Couples who claim they dont argue ever, are either lying or in a very dull relationship.

OK, time to revive this thread, because I actually lost my innocence to a girl this monday night....

We just used to be together for one week.

On Wednesday, she told me, that she would need time for our relationship...the monday after, she made me sleeping with her...tough, I'm really in love with her and wanted to do this, somehow, too, it was a bit early, wasn't it???

OK, now I'm a fucked up old bitch and tomorrow (after a 2 1/2 h phonecall tonite) I'm going to visit her once again...HELP...My virginity is fucked up and one week ago, I couldn't even imagine to have a girlfriend...I'm honest, she really seduced me somehow (we were lying there kissing and touching, then she started to throw away her clothes, and I just felt like "Wow!") but on the other hand, I felt love and I want to be with her all day long...HELP!!!

No good girl?! I thought that my first was a fantastic girl.
Anyway sex,music,sex,sport,sex,art,sex,work,sex,beer frenzy,sex,sleep and oh! tv and sex:p
If i'm being honest ,thats the average boys thought pattern;)

Then he gets married and takes up D.I.Y.:sigh

Re:Lost My Innocence To A No Good Girl

Posted by Reggaeluv2000 - 2008/09/11 06:26

yup...you're right on that davko ;)
and for the D.I.Y. method, there is always a reason why... maybe it's because us women want more mind stimulation rather than, sports, beer,tv,work,hanging out with buddies,sex,beer frenzy, and not to mention grown men wrestling on the floor WTF... there's so much more to life than just those things listed, and I know I get bored beyond belief with someone like that....what part of those things listed are a turn on for women? not much...while being young it's ok, but when you get older, it's just boring to have such predictability from your significant other!
So ya'll get stuck with the D.I.Y. method...sorry boys:dead Men are like sheep, they need to be led and taught how to please us. If they could all just learn to slow down a bit and bring in more foreplay, we would all be happier. Us women need emotional intimacy before we can really enjoy ourselves. Just give your lady a little more attention and don't just go straight into it, then you won't have to D.I.Y!

Erm, with me it was a 90 minutes+ foreplay, so don't blame me for being too fast...;)

Anyway, it's like Perry Farrell told in some of his songs "Sex Is Violent"...I don't know why, but it's not the Sex itself, but the whole bunch of feelings and irritations afterwards that makes you feel the violence of it.

Maybe I behave like a woman I dunno, but...hey...I used to be the virgin and she already had her experiences...

And I used to ask her, if she was ready and she told me, that she just wants to know if I was ready...than I asked her, if it wouldn't be a lil' bit too early and she just smiled and told me, that I really don't know her at all...seems a bit bitchy in the end, but she's still in love with me and we're visitng each others nearby every day...

BTW: she didn't (and still doesn't) know, that I had sex with her for the very 1st time, so it wasn't some kind of abusement...

And tonite she's goin' to visit me to "watch movies" and I haven't talked to her at all...but how to start with it???

She didn't know it was your first time?:eek I don't know her, but maybe she would have tried to make it more special had she known, you just need to let her know how it made your feel. If she loves you, she will understand, and your relationship will be the better for it.

We talked about our relationship for a long, long time and told us everything we supposed to be important for our relationship.

Now I know, it's a serious thing and our love has grown so much in the last few days (I've spent the whole weekend with her...) that I can tell we'll stay together.

For me and her, it feels like true love...maybe the starting was a bit fast for me, but in the end, it seems to have been the right way...I really love her!!!) (and having sex with a person you adore is something special which feels right...)
